

Mobile Money Contributing Towards Global M-Commerce

15th September 2015

Topyster Muga: Head of Airtel Money, Airtel Networks Kenya Limited

What is M-Commerce?

- Business that is conducted on the internet through the use of cellphones or other wireless, handheld electronic devices.
- Mobile commerce, or m-commerce, gives consumers the ability to purchase products in a virtual retail space on their smartphones, tablets, and other mobile devices
- Mobile commerce services were first delivered in 1997, when the first two mobile-phone enabled Coca Cola vending machines were installed in the Helsinki area in Finland. The machines accepted payment via SMS text messages.

More than half of the 255 mobile money deployments are in sub-Saharan Africa
